Raleigh, Thursday, February 27, 1868.

PLAN OF ORGANIZATION OF THE CONSERVATIVE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a chairman and thirty members—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The committee shall have power to maintain its organization by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registrations, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organization, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

PLATFORM.

The Conservative people of North Carolina, having by their delegates assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty, and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States, and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial department are equal and co-ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people, of the Reconstruction Acts, and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal offices.

3. Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Convention that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper measure within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudicies against that race, that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder in the last resort of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact as established by law in the earlier and better days of the republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats, and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States, and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union, on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates for the State at large, to represent the conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, hereafter to be appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered, and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said office.

The North Carolinian.

"Breathes there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said,
This is my own, my native land."

WM. A. HEARNE, JNO. W. DUNHAM,
EDITORS.

Raleigh, Thursday, February 27, 1868.

THE State Convention of the Radical party assembled in Tucker Hall, in this city, yesterday, at 12 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various offices in the State. Our readers will find the names of the nominees of the body elsewhere. The White men of North Carolina now know against whom they will have to contend in the campaign on the constitution. The ticket can and must be defeated, and the devilish purposes of radicalism must be rebuked by the true sons of the State at the ballot box, on the day of election.—In order to do this, it will be necessary that we enter upon the work immediately, and continue at it with unflagging zeal until the canvass shall be closed.

Whatever we intend doing must be done cheerfully, thoroughly, enthusiastically. There must be neither division nor lukewarmness in our ranks. The canvass will be a short one: let us make it a decisive one. The Radical nominee declared in his speech accepting the nomination, that the State would resume her relations with the General Government by the 20th of May next. We presume that he knew whereof he spoke. If Mr. Holden's prediction be true, we have but little time for work. Let not a single moment of that time be needlessless lost. It is inexpressibly valuable to us and to the cause we advocate.

We desire, in this connection, to speak a word to the gentlemen of the State who have heretofore been recognised as leaders amongst us. The people look to you for counsel and for guidance in this crisis. They ask—nay, they demand, that you shall come from your retirement and give them the benefit of your learning and experience. We beg you to respond to the demand. Vance has responded, and the campaign for truth and justice, for the peace and dignity of the commonwealth, for the purity and virtue of our women, was most brilliantly opened by him, at Warrenton, on yesterday. Who will follow? The people are anxiously waiting to hear. Let them not be disappointed. Action! action! earnest, determined work, this is the manner by which success shall come to us, and this alone.

OUR cotemporary of the Wilson Plaindealer gives his farming readers some sensible and practical advice, which they would do well to heed and put in practice. The people of the South have made some most lamentable and disastrous blunders in their farming operations since the war. We do most earnestly hope that they will not allow the lessons taught them by their bitter experience to go unheeded. They have planted too largely of cotton and too little grain. Induced by hopes of a speedy recovery from the damages of the war, they entered wildly upon the cultivation of cotton to the exclusion of other articles not less necessary to permanent prosperity. They have suffered, signally suffered for their folly, and we trust that they will allow no inducement to lead them into a course so pregnant with danger as that they have adopted since 1865. The recent advance in the price of cotton has, we fear, seduced some of our fellow-citizens into an abandonment of good intentions, previously formed. We warn them of the consequences.

Our contemporary of the Plaindealer advises these three things, which he deems essential to the welfare of our farming community: first, increased attention to the cultivation of small grain; secondly, the raising of our own stock, and taking better care of that stock than we have ever been accustomed to give; and thirdly, the preparation of manure at home, and its substitution, so far as possible, for foreign fertilizers.

These suggestions we deem practical and wise ones, and we add our advice to that of the Plaindealer.

We give the advice, with all due deference to the opinions of those more conversant than we are with the agricultural matters of the South. Our deep interest in everything pertaining to the farming operations of our people is our only motive for tendering it. We know how much every department of trade is dependent upon the agricultural development of the land, and we watch with anxiety for the determination of our friends engaged in such pursuits.

It is stated that Brick Pomeroy is about to move his paper to Cincinnati.

We give below a brief summary of the doings of the State Radical Convention:

Ex-Governor William W. Holden, the chairman of the State Executive Committee, called the Convention to order and moved the appointment of Dr. Eugene Grissom, of Granville, as temporary President. The temporary organization was perfected by the appointment of Dr. H. J. Menninger, editor of the Newbern Republican, as Secretary. Subsequently C. L. Harris, of Rutherford, was chosen chairman, upon the recommendation of the committee on permanent organization. Gen. Alfred Dockery, Handy Lockhat and others were made Vice-Presidents, and the necessary number of secretaries were appointed.

The morning session was consumed in the enrollment of the delegates, after which the body adjourned until half past four o'clock.

At that hour the Convention resumed business, and proceeded to the nomination of its candidates for the various State offices. The following are the nominations so far as made up to the hour of adjournment last night:

For Governor, Wm. W. Holden, of Wake.

For Lieutenant Governor, Tod R. Caldwell, of Burke.

For Secretary of State, Dr. H. J. Menninger, of Craven.

For Superintendent of Public Works, C. L. Harris, of Rutherford.

For Superintendent of Public Instruction, S. S. Ashley, of New Hanover.

For Public Treasurer, D. A. Jenkins, of Gaston.

For Attorney General, Wm. A. Coleman, of Wake.

For Auditor of Public Accounts, Henderson Adams, of Davidson.

The nomination of Lieutenant Governor was tendered to Gen. Alfred Dockery, of Richmond. Gen. Dockery declined the honor, (?) assigning as a reason the fact that he had been three times a candidate for Governor of the State; had received the highest vote ever given to a defeated candidate, and he did not think it becoming or proper to accept the tender of an inferior position. The General, we are informed, had Gubernatorial aspirations, and was, probably, offended by the success of a man having weaker claims upon the Republican party.

So far, the people know the work before them. This ticket certainly has no claim to the confidence or support of the white men of the State. The Convention by which it has been put in nomination was largely under the control of men who have come into the State since the close of the war.

Let us make diligent preparation to defeat it. By placing before the people true and able men, we shall be able to consign them to their primitive obscurity. To work, North Carolinians! The crisis calls for all you have of time, means and talent. Let them be freely given, and all will be well for the State.

THE HAPPY FAMILY,

—OR—

THE CAPITOL MONKEY SHOW!

(BY OUR SPECIAL REPORTER UNDER THE TABLE.)

[The reader is particularly requested to remember the fact that no Reporter for this paper is allowed on the floor, in the halls or in the galleries of the Convention, and consequently our reports are made from under the table, behind the scenes, or as may be otherwise ordered and convenient.]

THIRTY-EIGHTH DAY.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 26.

Animals called to order at 11 o'clock.

The North Carolinian of yesterday read and approved.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, rose to a privileged question. Mr. J. said there was a journal published in this city—the Sentinel. By our grace it is allowed a reporter on the floor.

Mr. Jones further said he had been misrepresented in that paper's proceedings of yesterday. He denounced it as a deliberate falsehood. The term social equality was not in the oath he presented as an amendment to the suffrage bill, but civil equality was there. It must have been furnished by the reporter, and was a falsehood.

Mr. Durham said the reporter, Mr. Syme, informed him that it was a mistake, and would be corrected.

Johnny McDonald, of Chatham, rose to a privileged question. He said he had been misrepresented as usual. The reporter of the Standard had printed him as moving to strike out twelve supreme court judges. He had made no such remark. It would go out to the world that he was a fool. The word supreme was a misprint for superior.

Ashley, of Buzzard's Bay, also rose to a privileged question. He had been misrepresented in the Sentinel. That paper had said in its reports of Monday night that Mr. Durham had said, "oh, you are a liar."

Mr. Daniel moved to refer to a committee of five.

Abbott, of New Hampshire, arose also to a privileged question. He said he had been misrepresented in an article in the Sentinel. He would say that any gentleman who knew him would agree that he entertained no manevolent feelings on this subject.

Mr. French, big-footed French, of Bladen, arose to a privileged question. He wished to know if the committee provided for in the resolution passed some time since in regard to black mail, (introduced by Mr. Durham) had been appointed, if so, he wished to know if they had considered and reported.

Mr. Durham said the committee had been in consultation, but owing to the absence of an important witness, the committee had been unable to glean all the facts, and were unable to report as yet.

Watts, the greasy man, from Martin, moved a reconsideration of the vote of yesterday on that portion of the report of judiciary committee, providing for the number of Judges.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, moved to lay on the table, which motion was carried—ayes 62, noes 46.

AYES—Messrs. Aydlott, Baker, Benbow, Blume, Bradley, Bryan, Chillson, Cox, Dowd, Duckworth, Durham, Ellis, Etheridge, Franklin, Garland, George, Glover, Graham, of Orange, Gunter, Hay, Heaton, Hobbs, Hodnett, Hollowell, Holt, Jones, of Washington, King, of Lincoln, King, of Lenoir, Kinney, Legg, Lennon, Logan, Long, Marler, McCubbins, Merritt, McDonald, of Chatham, McDonald, of Moore, Morton, Mullican, Nance, Newsom, Nicholson, Patrick, Parker, Petree, Peterson, Ray, Read, Rhodes, Rose, Sanderlin, Stilly, Stillwell, Taylor, Teague, Turner, Williams, of Sampson.

NOES—Messrs. Abbott, Andrews, Ashley, Carter, Cherry, Colgrove, Daniel, Dickey, Eppes, Fisher, French, of Bladen, French, of Rockingham, French, of Chowan, Fullings, Galloway, Graham, of Montgomery, Grant, of Northampton, Gully, Harris, of Wake, Harris, of Franklin, Hayes, of Robeson, Hayes, of Halifax, Highsmith, Hoffler, Hood, Hyman, Ing, Jones, of Caldwell, Lee, May, Mayo, Murphy, Pierson, Ragland, Renfrow, Rich, Robbins, Rodman, Smith, Sweet, Tourgee, Trogden, Watts, Welker, Williamson.

By consent Galloway offered a petition from the citizens of Wilmington, praying the removal of some of the municipal officers of that city. Referred to committee appointed to confer with Gen. Canby.

Mr. Durham moved to tender the use of this hall to the members of the Convention of the Republican party. Carried.

On motion of Mr. Rodman, the monkeys were ordered to their cages till to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The Cause and Pretext.

For what cause is President Johnson to be impeached, and what high crime or misdemeanor has he committed? The ostensible pretext is an insult to and an outrage upon the intelligence of the nation, and only needs to be named in order to provoke an outburst of honest indignation.—In the exercise of his constitutional functions he has thought proper to displace an offensive member of the Cabinet, who has abused his trust, violated the sanctity of the most confidential counsels, allied himself with the President's enemies, and conspired for his downfall. Ever since the foundation of the government, at all times and under all circumstances, the right to select his own Cabinet advisers has been permitted without question to every President, from Washington to Johnson. And even under the civil tenure-of-office bill, which is unconstitutional on its very face, and which was framed for an express party purpose, it was declared distinctly during the discussion—which thus serves as a contemporaneous construction of the law by its own framers—that there was no intention to apply it to the Cabinet officers, since it could not be supposed that any man of honor would consent to hold such a position who differed in any way with the views of the President. The perfidious Stanton was less understood then than now, notorious as had been his baseness and venality.—National Intelligencer.

Blow the Trumpet in Zion.

There is no time to be lost, and from the visible and universal commotion among the people of the metropolis the public mind is fully impressed with the dangers of the crisis and the necessity of immediate action. How? Through the only available constitutional method left the people, of immense mass meetings, here, there and everywhere, and of earnest and emphatic resolutions against this impeachment and all the other revolutionary measures and tendencies of this radical Congress. The city of New York, which gave, in her memorable Union square mass meeting of April, 1861, the grand impulse to the war for the Union which saved the Union from dissolution—this imperial city, we say, should, as she doubtless will in this crisis, lead off in another initial popular uprising in behalf of the constitution against a consolidated despotism.—N. Y. Herald.

Duty of Impeachment.

We believe the salvation of the country demands the impeachment of the President. We have all along felt that we might submit to Mr. Johnson's Administration, evil as it has been, rather than force an angry and doubtful question upon the country. With the Congress overwhelmingly Republican, there was no reason why we should not compel the President to pursue a wise policy. We reasoned upon the presumption, that it was better to have impeachment held over him as a check than to begin a trial that might be as long as that of Warren Hastings. It was a debatable question. The evidence was far from being conclusive. Morally, there was no doubt that Mr. Johnson should be impeached. But impeachment is a question of law and evidence, not of moral belief. As a Republican, there were a hundred reasons why he should be removed.—N. Y. Tribune.

The President's Crime.

The crime for which the President is to be impeached consists simply in the exercise of a right which has been enjoyed by all his predecessors, and belongs to the executive head of every Government in the world. This right is called in question by a pretended law, which is in such flagrant violation of the constitution, as well as of all precedents, that this same Stanton, who is a lawyer and has been Attorney-General, advised the President to veto it. And now the President is to be impeached in Stanton's interest because he believes the law to be unconstitutional, and institutes proceedings to bring it to a judicial test!—N. Y. World.

LATEST NEWS TO THE FARMERS OF North Carolina.

Your attention is called to my large stock of Agricultural Implements, Iron Steel, &c., &c.

Corn and Cotton Planters, Corn Shellers, Hay, Shuck and Corn Stalk Cutters, Fan Mills, Plows, of every kind, Harrows and Cultivators, Spades, Shovels Forks, Brier Hooks, Iron Axles, Springs, Cart & Wagon Boxes, &c.

I call particular attention to BILLUP'S CENTREBOARD COTTON SCRAPER, and to BILLUP'S DIXIE PLOW. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.

If Farmers are not satisfied, the money will be refunded.

OUR NOON DISPATCHES.

The Thomas-Stanton Affair.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.

Gen. Thomas appeared with his counsel.—Judge Carter issued a subpœna for Stanton, with his commission and other documents. Pending its service the court proceeded with other business.

Stanton's lawyers asked for postponement, but Thomas' lawyers objected. His bail surrendered him, and Thomas was a prisoner. The writ of habeas corpus was demanded, but Judge Carter told Thomas to go hence. This closes the matter unless the grand jury takes cognizance of it.

It is now expected that a quo warranto against Stanton will be applied for.

OUR MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Cong essional.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.

Senate—Four hundred citizens of Louisiana, setting forth their grievances, ask for relief.

The bill returning criminals from foreign countries was discussed, with considerable opposition. The bill was recommitted to be more continuously worded.

Certain routine resolutions in regard to impeachment were passed.

The bill selling Harper's Ferry passed.

Several Senators expressed doubts as to the conviction of the President for violation of the tenure-of-office bill, wherefor the impeachment charges will embrace seven or eight counts.

In the House, a bill exempting discharged soldiers from the payment of homestead fees was passed.

The House concurred in the supplemental reconstruction bill, which passed the Senate yesterday. It provides that a majority of the voters ratify the constitutions, and that registered persons shall vote anywhere in the State after 10 days residence, registration being proved by certificate, affidavit or other evidence, and that Congressional and State elections shall be held simultaneously with that for ratification of Constitution. The vote stood 96 to 32.

The bill goes to the President.

The House took up civil appropriations, which includes two hundred dollars for the survey of the Atlantic and Gulf coasts; twenty-five thousand for the Florida reefs, and a million and three-quarters for light house service, but adjourned without action.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.

The impeachment committee of the House examined Gen. Emory to-day.

Serious differences are reported in the committee. The idea that Radical troubles are thickening prevails, though no tangible facts have transpired.

Stanton answered the subpœna that he would obey it at noon, but as the case was thrust out of court, no further proceedings were had.

The Governor of New Jersey vetoed the resolution of the Legislature withdrawing the assent to the (un)constitutional amendment.

Secretary McCullough honored Stanton's requisition for various amounts on account of the War Department.

Gen. Thomas did not go to the War Department to-day.

Georgia Convention, &c.

ATLANTA, Feb. 26.

Section 32 of the Bill of Rights was adopted to-day. It allows a homestead of reality worth $2,000, and personal property to the amount of $1,000, in specie, both to be valued at the time they are set apart. It instructs the Legislature to provide for the setting apart, and for the valuation of the same.

A motion to adjourn sine die on the 7th of March was lost.

A resolution that mechanics and laborers shall have liens upon the property of employers for labor and meterial furnished, prevailed.

The removal of the State capital to Atlanta was warmly discussed. It will come to a vote to-moarow.

Florida Radical Convention.

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 26.

The Nigger-Radical State Convention met last night. The following ticket was nominated, and the nominations were made unanimous: For Governor, Harrison Reed; for Lieut. Gov. Wm. H. Gleason; for Member of Congress, C. M. Hamilton. Six delegates were chosen to the Chicago Convention, also a new State Executive Committee. Three Presidential electors were nominated.

NOTICE TO SHIPPERS OF SPIRITS OF TURPENTINE.

The Seaboard Inland Air Line, Via Portsmouth, Va., is now prepared to ship Spirits Turpentine to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, its steamers having bern arranged for that purpose.

This Air Line Route, from the fact of its avoiding transshipment from one Steamer to another, to which other lines are subject, and being the direct line between the Carolinas and the Northern Cities, with daily communication to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, and to Boston a Steamer every five days, offers great facilities for shipping, and is in advance of all other routes from three to five days and at as low rates.

In shipping from the Northern Cities, or from Carolina, be careful to ship via Portsmouth, and by the Steamship Lines connecting with and forming part of this Route.

From Boston, Merchants and Miner's Line, E. Sampson, Agent, end Central Wharf.

From New York, Old Dominion Steamship Company, Pier 37, North river, M. L. McCready President, Office 187 Greenwich street.

From Philadelphia, Clyde Steamers, 14 South Delaware Avenue, W. P. Clyde, Agent.

Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, J. L. Wilson, Agent.

All claims for loss, damage, or overcharge, promptly settled by applying to
JAS. McCARRICK, Trace Agent,
Seaboard Inland Air Line, Portsmouth, Va.

The Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad and Bay Line, having been consolidated under one Management from Weldon to Baltimore, offer greater facilities to shippers of freight to and from Baltimore than any other line, and guarantees safety of freight and prompt settlement of all claims.

PROSPECTUS.

THE

NORTH CAROLINIAN,

A DAILY,

Democratic Newspaper,

PUBLISHED AT

RALEIGH, N. C.

W. A. HEARNE, JOHN W. DUNHAM,

EDITORS.

The NORTH CAROLINIAN is Democratic in its principles. It is unalterably opposed to Negro Suffrage, Military rule, and Reconstruction upon the basis of Congressional enactment.

Its Editors believe and teach that this is a

WHITE MAN'S GOVERNMENT,

FRAMED BY THE BRAINS, AND

WON BY THE BLOOD OF WHITE MEN,

FOR THE BENEFIT OF WHITE MEN,

AND THAT IT SHOULD BE

CONTROLLED BY WHITE MEN ONLY.

As there is but ONE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION professing these sentiments and committed to their maintenance, the NORTH CAROLINIAN will steadily advocate the abandonment of all other party names and organizations, and yield a hearty co-operation with that organization—the NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN,

Will contain the freshest News, by telegraph and otherwise. Full reports of all Legislative Assemblies will be furnished its readers.

Particular attention will be paid to State news, and each number will contain a complete epitome of every incident reported in the State press.

MARKETS will be carefully reported.

The Weekly North Carolinian

Is the largest and handsomest paper in the State and will be filled with choice family reading and selected literary matter.

PRICE OF SUBSCRIPTION:

DAILY, one year,	$8 00
" six months,	4 00
WEEKLY, one year,	3 00
" six months,	2 00

Terms—Cash in advance.

We respectfully request our friends in all portions of the State to interest themselves in our behalf.

RATES OF ADVERTISING LIBERAL.

☞ As the North Carolinian retains the subscription list which it had as a semi-weekly at Wilson, it offers superior inducements to advertisers.

All Communications on business should be addressed to

STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The gentlemen composing the State Executive Committee, are respectfully requested to meet in this city on Friday, the 28th inst., at 11 o'clock. A full attendance is much desired.

By order of the

CHAIRMAN.

WAKE COUNTY CONVENTION.

We are requested to announce that there will be a meeting of the White men of the county of Wake, at the court house, in this city, on Thursday, the 5th of March, at 12 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Legislature and for county offices.

We would earnestly urge every white man in the county, opposed to negro equality and all other Radical heresies, to forego his usual business for this day, and give his attention to the good of the county. The enemies of our institutions and our laws, our race and our welfare have already organized and selected their candidates. Shall we be less active, less willing to labor and less earnest than they? Surely not. Let, then, every white man in the county of Wake, who is unwilling to accept the civil, political and social equality of the negro be present on the 5th proximo.

KEEP THE BALL MOVING.

We learn that the white men of Orange assembled in Hillsboro' on Tuesday, to perfect an organization under which to conduct the coming campaign. Able and eloquent speeches were made by Governor Graham and the Hon. Josiah Turner, and the very best feeling prevailed.

The people of Orange are thoroughly aroused to the necessity of work, and when the day of doom shall come for the constitution the scalawags at the Capitol are making, Orange, by a most handsome majority, will give her assistance in its complete defeat.

We hope to have the proceedings for publication.

AS YOU LIKE IT.

The Tourgee made quite a reputation last night in the grand pow-wow, for point and pith, in his repartees and remarks. Messrs. C. J. Rogers, of Wake, and Henderson Adams, of Davidson, were placed in nomination for Auditor of Public Accounts. Jeems H. Harris supported Mr. Rogers' claims in a speech of considerable length and warmth, and used as an argument the vote given by Rogers in the Legislature against the Howard Amendment, because that amendment left the question of suffrage in the hands of the white men of the State, and its adoption would have debarred his race from the privilege of the ballot.

The Tourgee, be it understood, was a warm advocate of Mr. Adams' selection. When the nomination for Superintendent of Public Works was under discussion, a powerful argument urged in favor of Col. C. L. Harris' election was that he had voted against the amendment. The Tourgee could not understand how it happened that in the one case a vote against the fourteenth article was a recommendation, and in the other a vote against the article was a similar claim, in one and the same convention.

It takes Radical consciences and brains to understand it, Tourgee. The negro delegate, who was sleeping profoundly in the rear of the hall, at the time of your argument, understood the process, however, and proved his "loyalty" by voting on both sides of all questions.—He did his full duty to his constituents.

CITY AND STATE.

Gov. Vance at Warrenton.

We learn from a private letter that this distinguished and talented son of the old North State addressed the people of Warrenton yesterday in his usual forcible and inimitable manner. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, a large and enthusiastic crowd assembled to hear him, and they were most richly paid for any temporary inconvenience. We are glad to learn that the very best feeling prevails in Warrenton, among persons of both colors.

The negroes of the county, or at least a portion of them, contemplate the formation of a conservative club. They express great dissatisfaction with the course of Mr. Read and John Hyman, their delegates in the Convention. They were greatly pleased by the address of Governor Vance, and strong hopes are entertained that old Warren will record her opposition to radicalism, by polling a handsome majority against the constitution.

A Ladies' Fair in Warrenton.

The ladies of Warrenton are holding a fair this week for the benefit of the popular and efficient pastor of the Baptist church in that town, the Rev. T. B. Kingsbury. We can only hope that the amount realized will be proportioned to the worth of the donee, and the beauty and elegance of the donors.

The Knight of the Sorrowful Figure.

We learn that Jones, the Quixotic Konvenshuner from Washington, waxed furiously savageous, yesterday, and talked largely about "pistols and coffee for two," because our neighbor of the Sentinel had chosen to comment rather freely upon his infamous test-oath amendment to the majority report on the suffrage question. Some folks say that the doughty, redoubtable "Knight of the Sorrowful" is "spilin" for satisfaction on "the field of honor," but somehow or other it does not occur to us that a native North Carolinian who could concoct such a cowardly and infamous device (as that cowardly test-oath amendment) to disfranchise his countrymen, would very ardently desire to avenge his tarnished honor (?) on the high chivalric principle!—Not much, Mistur Jones—not much.

Apologetic.

An apology is due our readers for the uninteresting paper we give them to-day. We had neither Southern nor Northern exchanges yesterday, due, in one case, we understand to a failure of the Petersburg train to make connection with the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad at Weldon. In addition to this, Mr. Manager Cowles dismissed his "varmints" early yesterday morning, that they might take part in the grander exhibition at Tucker Hall, and we have nothing amusing to record of them. Our local, who is a young man from the country, was so entertained by the wonderful performances of the latter "show," that we found it impossible to keep him at home and so gave him holiday, that he might gratify his inordinate fondness for researches in natural history.

The last we heard of the youth he was gazing in rapt delight upon Amos Hall, a gorilla of enormous size from the wilds of his own (our Local's) native "Sampson, God bless you!"

Penitent.

We learn that A. H. Galloway is greatly mortified at the gentle exposure we felt it our duty to make of his sad degradation, caused by the low company he has been keeping of late. Poor fellow! It was all done in kindness. We did not wish to hurt his feelings. What we said was much more in sorrow than in anger. We rejoice that our advice has been salutary. He was fast throwing himself away by associating on terms of equality with miserable white scalawags; but he has manfully gathered himself together, and determined to shake them all off, and forsworn all—except official—intercourse with such villainous bad company.

Yesterday on leaving the saloon where he had taken a solitary penitential glass, he was heard singing, with tears in his bright eyes, the following verse from the lamentable ditty of "The Lost Man":

"Oh when I thi nk on what I is,
And what I used to was,
I fears I'se throwed myself away,
Without sufficient cos."

O. S. Hayes.

We have learned, sub rosa, that this delectable "cuss" desires to represent the Third District in Congress, and having a very natural curiosity to know something of his antecedents, we have made enquiry concerning him. It turns out that he has no history. He has, however, a reputation for an inordinate hankering for association with "cullud wimin." Before his election to the Congo-Reconstrukshun Konvenshun he "run" a cross-road shebang, in Robeson county, doing business altogether with the negroes of the surrounding country.

His stock in trade comprised a keg of molasses, a bolt of "kaliker," some radical blarney, and sundry canteens of pine-top and tangle-leg whiskey, all of which he doled out for a consideration.

And this is the history of O. S. Hayes, miscegnating scallawag, from Robeson county.

Piano Tuning.

We respectfully invite the attention of our readers, and especially of our lady readers, (and we are proud to say the number of the latter is daily increasing) to the advertisement of Mr. F. W. Walter, agent of the firm of Wm. Knabe & Co., piano manufacturers, Baltimore, Md. We do not know Mr. Walter personally, but we do know Messrs. Knabe & Co., and we do not hesitate to recommend as a skillful workman and as a gentleman any agent this firm may send among our people. The firm of Wm. Knabe & Co. is one of the oldest, and is beyond all question one of the best in the country. We recommend it, also, to the patronage of those of our readers making purchases in their line.

"Rebel End Foremost."

During the delivery of his address of acceptance yesterday, the Ex. P. G. waxed warm in his allusions to "rebels" and "sich," and declared the inexorable resolve of Congress never to admit North Carolina to the Union "rebel end foremost."

The Ex. P. G. is a candidate for Governor, and if by any mischance he should secure an election and North Carolina obtain admission, she'll go back "rebel end foremost" certain, or else the pen transmitted to Joseph William as an heirloom was doing "loyal" work when it signed the ordinance of secession.

The Lenten Season.

Yesterday was Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent, so designated from a custom of the ancient church of requiring its members to fast in sackcloth with ashes on the head, as the symbol of humiliation. Lent is observed by devout Episcopalians and Catholics in memory of our Saviour's miraculous abstinence from food forty days and forty nights, and precedes Easter by precisely that length of time.

In Christ Church (Rev. Dr. Mason's) there will be morning service during four days of the week and the pastor will lecture next Tuesday evening.

Shipments of Cotton.

We understand that from the 3d to the 24th instant, three thousand seven hundred and ten bales of cotton were received by and shipped over the Raleigh and Gaston railroad. The greater portion of this staple was purchased, we believe, by Capt. J. B. Hunter, of the firm of J. B. Hunter & Co., Portsmouth, Va. Capt. H. is an advertiser in the Carolinian, which is equivalent to success, and the fact attests his sound judgment.

Fun in Prospective.

We are prodigiously delighted at the nomination of the Ex. P. G. by the straight out-and-out Nigger-Radicals, for it will be rare fun for us to see him lap up from the ground and swallow the profuse vomit of diatribes against them in which the editor of the Standard was wont to indulge in times past.

As Beau Hickman would say: "Hooray for booraw!"

Disappointed.

The dusky and delectable Diannals were in high odor in the galleries at Tucker Hall last night, and all qui vive for the nomination of an American gentleman of African 'scent, but by some strange accident the claims of the flat-nosed kink-heads were entirely overlooked in the distribution of prizes, to the great disgust of the expectant "damsuels."

Not only were the rising aspirations of coal-blacks, like Jeemes Harris, and Mahoganies, a la Hood, the Egyptian, unceremoniously overslowed, but even claims of Galloway, clay-bank, were absolutely ignored by the pale-faced brethren of the "meetin'."

Once more, yet once again, we say: Hooray for hooraw!

The Prospective (?) Attorney General.

Wm. M. Coleman, the exemplary youth, whom the citizens of Concord inform us, was forced to remove that town for having deflowered a negro woman, was nominated for the Attorney Generalship of the State by the jackals and hyenas of Menagerie No. 2, in Konvenshun last night.

Gracious "heavings!"

Nomination for Congress in the 2nd District.

We understand that Col. David Heaton, of Craven, received the nomination for Congress from the District Convention held in this city yesterday. Col. Heaton resides in Newbern, and is a representative of the negroes of Craven, in the Kangaroo Konvenshun, in the Commons Hall. He is a native of Ohio, and, therefore, the nomination, "we guess."

Pardoned.

Edward Sudley, white, sentenced to three years imprisonment in Fort Macon for stealing a watch, was yesterday pardoned by Gov. Worth. He had served out nearly a year of his time.

Johnny McDonald's Idea.

Of the fundamental principle of a Convention stay-law is—to stay in session as long as the State Treasury holds out.

The Plaindealer of the 25th contains a call for a meeting of the White men of Wilson county, in Wilson, on Saturday next.

The Newbern Journal of Commerce has a call for a similar meeting of the White men of Craven, in Newbern, on Thursday, the 10th of March next.

We are glad to see these indications. In all parts of the State the people are manifesting the very liveliest interest in their political condition, and the gentlemen who have been appointed to work in the cause are getting to work with admirable spirit.

We learn that the negroes of Warren have nominated N. R. Jones, present sheriff of that county, for re-election. Mr. Jones is a thorough Democrat, but has won their confidence and love by his honesty and kindness in the discharge of the duties of his office.

A correspondent of The Old North State, writing from Thomasville, recommends the Rev. Wm. E. Pell, the Senior editor of the Sentinel for Governor, and I. G. Lash, Esq., of Salem for Lieutenant Governor.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:

Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.

I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well.
Yours truly,
J. B. DANIEL.

CHRONIC LIVER COMPLAINT CURED.

This is to certify that I was cured of Chronic Liver Complaint by Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.

40 YEARS.
DEEMS' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pills, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.
There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and paid in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.
They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.
Price:—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $18. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D. Address

Raleigh, Thursday, February 27, 1868.

A White Man's Rally in Charlotte.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Feb. 22, 1867.

In pursuance to a call made by the canvassers, appointed by the late Conservative Convention, held at the city of Raleigh, a very large concourse of the Conservative citizens of Charlotte, together with others from the surrounding country, assembled in Treloar Hall, on the night of the date above mentioned, for the purpose of forming a Conservative Club, and of fully endorsing the action of the Conservative State Convention, which had adjourned its session.

At the hour appointed for the meeting, Gen. John A. Young ascended the stand and called it to order, and nominated as its President the Hon. J. H. Wilson, which nomination being seconded, he was unanimously called to preside, and, in a few remarks, fully explained the object of the meeting; after which, on motion of Gov. Vance, Mr. Jonas Rudisil and T. C. Allison were appointed Vice President, and, on motion of Dr. M. M. Orr, Mr. J. E. Britton and J. S. Phillips were requested to act as Secretaries.

After the organization had been perfected, on motion Gen. R. D. Johnston, the President appointed a committee of five to draft a set of resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting, as follows: Gen. Robt. D. Johnston, Gov. Z. B. Vance, Gen. J. A. Young, Mr. S. F. Houston and Mr. Samuel Taylor.

While the committee was absent preparing business for the action of the meeting, Col. H. C. Jones, Jr., was called for and addressed the concourse in a patriotic and well-timed speech.

At the conclusion of Col. Jones' remarks, Judge J. W. Osborne was called upon, and ascended the platform amid tremendous applause, and for some time held, as if chained, the attention of his hearers in a broad, grand and eloquent address, which was frequently interrupted by rounds of applause.

After the conclusion of Judge Osborne's speech, the committee appointed to prepare business for the meeting having returned, the President called for their report, whereupon Gen. R. D. Johnston, the Chairman of the Committee, read the annexed resolutions, which were, upon motion of Col. H. C. Jones, when adopted, to be adopted as a whole:

Resolved, That this meeting cordially approves and ratifies the proceedings of the late Conservative Convention at Raleigh, and heartily commends its declaration of principles and plan of organization to the people of this county.

Resolved, That for the furtherance of the great principles therein set forth, we will form ourselves into an organization to be called the Conservative Club of Charlotte, with a President, Secretary, and other officers to be designated, and pledge to each other our sacred honor that we will use every fair and legitimate effort to restore and maintain the ancient rights, liberties and supremacy of the white people of North Carolina.

Resolved, That "Mecklenburg" sends greeting to her sister counties, and challenges them to a performance of the high and responsible duties which devolve upon us all in this crisis of Southern civilization, in the name and by the sacred memories of 1776.

Resolved, That an Executive Committee of five be appointed by the chairman of this meeting to request the citizens of the various captain's district, to meet in Charlotte on such day as may be indicated by the committee herein contemplated, to consult together for the organization of the conservative party in this county, as recommended by our late State Convention.

Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the Executive Committee to have the names of all the members of this club enrolled; and we recommend the same to the committees of the other districts of the county.

Upon the call of the President for remarks upon the resolutions, Governor Zebulon B. Vance, the patriot hero of North Carolina, was vociferously called for, and, amid a thunder of applause that fairly made the building shake, entertained the meeting with his usual high-toned chivalry and patriotic devotion to his country for his country's good. During Governor Vance's remarks he was frequently interrupted by applause, and at the conclusion of his speech such a shout went up as was never before heard in Treloar Hall.

The resolutions were then put, and, upon motion of C. Overman, Esq., unanimously adopted.

The chair then appointed, under the resolution empowering it to appoint an executive committee of five, the following gentlemen to compose said committee: Gen. R. D. Johnson, Mr. M. L. Wriston, Dr. J. M. Davidson, Mr. S. P. Alexander and Mr. Jonas Rudisil.

Gen. John A. Young was then called upon and addressed the meeting in a few pert and well timed remarks.

After Gen. Young had concluded, Col. Wm. Johnston was called upon and responded.

After Col. Johnston had concluded, Governor Vance moved that a Committee of five be appointed to nominate officers for a permanent organization of the club, to consist of a President, four Vice Presidents, two Secretaries, and a Treasurer, which, being adopted, the following gentlemen were appointed said committee by the chair: Col. H. C. Jones, Mr. J. E. Britton, Dr. M. M. Orr, C. Overman, Esq., and Capt. J. Y. Bryce.

Upon motion of Col. Wm. Johnston, it was unanimously

Resolved, That this meeting hereby expresses gratitude to President Johnson for the firmness, consistency and patriotism which has characterized his course in defending the Constitution, during his administration as chief executive of the United States.

Upon motion, the proceedings of this meeting were ordered to be published in the Daily Bulletin, with the request that the other conservative papers of the State be asked to copy; and the Secretaries instructed to furnish the other city papers with a copy for publication in their seperate editions.

Upon motion of Gen. J. A. Young, the meeting was adjourned until called together again by the President of this meeting.

"Preparation for Death."

Miss Mulock in her greatest work, a work every one should read, called "A Noble Life," makes her hero says: "Ay, it is all right—no harm could come—there would be nothing neglected—even were I to die to-morrow." Even the most worldly minded must start when they read the plain, simple, touching comments that follow. She says:

"That doing to-morrow, which might happen to any of us, how few really recognize it and prepare for it! Not in the ordinary religious sense of 'preparation for death'—after a most irreligious life—a frantic attempt of sinning and terror-stricken humanity, to strike a ballance-sheet with Heaven, just leaving a sufficient portion on the credit side—but preparation in the ordinary, worldly meaning—keeping one's affairs straight and clear, that no one may be perplexed therewith afterward; forgiving and asking forgiveness of offences; removing evil done, and delaying not for a day, any good that it is possible to do."

A cavalier had a fine woman in his eye, and could not forbear telling her that she was wondrous pretty. "Sir," said the lady, "I thank you for your good opinion; and I wish, with all my heart I could say as much for you."

"So you might, madam," said he, "if you made no more conscience of a lie than I do."

The paddles of a first class Atlantic steamer pass through a space of between five and eight thousand miles in carrying the vessel three thousand.

In Siberia they think the weather moderate, and call the day pleasant, when the mercury is only sixty-five degrees below zero.

NOTICE TO SHIPPERS OF SPIRITS OF TURPENTINE.
The Seaboard Inland Air Line, Via Portsmouth, Va., is now prepared to ship Spirits Turpentine to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, its steamers having been arranged for that purpose.
This Air Line Route, from the fact of its avoiding transshipment from one Steamer to another, to which other lines are subject, and being the direct line between the Carolinas and the Northern Cities, with daily communication to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, and to Boston a Steamer every five days, offers great facilities for shipping, and is in advance of all other routes from three to five days and at as low rates.
In shipping from the Northern Cities, or from Carolina, be careful to ship via Portsmouth, and by the Steamship Lines connecting with and forming part of this Route.
From Boston, Merchants and Miner's Line, E. Sampson, Agent, end Central Wharf.
From New York, Old Dominion Steamship Company, Pier 37, North river, M. L. McCready President, Office 187 Greenwich street.
From Philadelphia, Clyde Steamers, 14 South Delaware Avenue, W. P. Clyde, Agent.
Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, J. L. Wilson, Agent.
From Baltimore, Bay Line Steamers, foot of Union Dock, R. L. Poor, Agent.
All claims for loss, damage, or overcharge, promptly settled by applying to
JAS. MCCARRICK, Trace Agent,
Seaboard Inland Air Line, Portsmouth, Va.

The Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad and Bay Line, having been consolidated under one Management from Weldon to Baltimore, offer greater facilities to shippers of freight to and from Baltimore than any other line, and guarantees safety of freight and prompt settlement of all claims.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.
WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.
DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:
Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.
I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.
WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.
DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinnated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well.
Yours truly,
J. B. DANIEL.

This is to certify that I was cured of Chronic Liver Complaint by Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit.
I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.
THOMAS THORN.
Greene county, August 14, 1867.

ROSADALIS IS A POTENT REMEDY IN ALL CHRONIC DISEASES.
From G. W. Blount, Esq., Attorney at Law, Wilson, N. C.
I have been cured of Chronic Inflamation of the ear and Partial Deafness, of ten years' standing, by ROSADALIS. GEO. W. BLOUNT.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE VERY WORST CASES OF CHRONIC RHEUMATISM.
I hereby certify that I was cured of long standing Chronic Rheumatism, by taking four bottles of Dr. Lawrence's ROSADALIS.

CHAIRS, BEDDING,
OIL CLOTH, MATTINGS, RUGS,
WINDOW SHADES, CHILDREN'S CARRIAGES,
S. A. STEVENS,
JOHNSON'S HALL,
MAIN STREET, NORFOLK, VIRGINIA.

We call special attention to our Fine Stock of PAPER-HANGINGS,
CORNICES AND CURTAIN GOODS.
Our stock of the above goods is one of the most COMPLETE AND EXTENSIVE
South of New York. It embraces all grades and the most RECENT STYLES.
Our prices are as low as can be purchased North, and we most respectfully solicit a call. We hold out extra inducements to Country Merchants, and we can fill orders on the most accommodating terms.

OUR CARPET AND OIL CLOTH DEPARTMENT
is on the lower floor—our store being 30 feet wide and 175 feet deep, and our stock comprises all grades of goods in this line, from the very cheapest Domestic to the very finest Brussels or Velvet Carpeting. We can offer especial inducements to Merchants—we will sell Carpets, Oil Cloths, &c, as low as any house in the country. We have our goods manufactured especially for us with particular regard to the style and quality best suited to our trade.
Our stock of
FLOOR AND TABLE OIL CLOTH
is the finest in this State. We have constantly on hand all widths, from 18 inches wide to 24 feet wide.

OUR FURNITURE WARE-ROOMS
are on the second floor. Our main room is the Hall, which is the handsomest and largest exhibition room in the South. It is 150 feet long by 60 feet wide. There we display the greatest variety of Household Furniture to be found South of Philadelphia, and we guarantee to compete in price, style and quality of work with any house in the country.

We call especial notice to our
PAPER-HANGING AND WINDOW SHADE DEPARTMENT.
We are constantly in receipt of all the west designs of both Foreign and Domestic Papers.

BORDERS AND FIRE SCREENS, SHADES, constantly on hand and made to order.

Our facilities for business are unsurpassed by any house, either North or South, and we invite the attention of housekeepers and the trade to our establishment, as we feel confident they will not fail to satisfy themselves that the above goods can be purchased on as favorable terms as at the North. Very Respectfully,
S. A. STEVENS,
Johnson's Hall, Main St., Norfolk, Va.
to July 24.

TO THE MERCHANTS OF NORTH CAROLINA. We have completed our Stock of China, Glass and Queensware for the Fall Trade, and are now ready to offer inducements to the Merchants of North Carolina to buy their supplies in Norfolk. We are prepared to sell as low as similar goods can be bought in any market North of us, thereby saving the cost of freight, and avoiding the risk of breakage by frequent handling. We invite the trade to call and see us. MARTIN & ROGERS,
Importers and Dealers in China, Glass and Queensware, No. 37 Market Square, Norfolk, Va.

PROSPECTUS OF THE WESTERN VINDICATOR.
On or before the 1st of March, prox., the undersigned will commence the publication of a weekly newspaper bearing the above title, in the town of Rutherfordton, N. C.
The Western Vindicator, as its name signifies, will be devoted to the support of Western interests and the dissemination of useful intelligence, selected with especial reference to the wants of the section it will labor to represent.
Politically, it will, for the present, adhere to no party organization; but will give a cheerful support to all measures looking to the speedy restoration of the Union, the preservation of the Constitution intact, the supremacy of the white race, and the perpetuity of Republican liberty in America.
The "Vindicator" will have a larger circulation in Rutherford, Polk and Cleaveland counties than any other newspaper. Advertising rates low.
Terms—$2 per annum.
